

Beaufort Flags

Developing and demonstrating your understanding of the Beaufort flag system

The Beaufort flag system is a way of describing the strength of the wind. It is a way of describing the direction of the wind. It is a way of describing the speed of the wind. It is a way of describing the direction and speed of the wind.

Beaufort

is a way of describing the direction and speed of the wind. It is a way of describing the direction and speed of the wind.

Here's how to make your own Beaufort Flag

1. Draw the flag on a piece of paper. The flag should be a square with a tail.
  2. Draw the flag on a piece of paper. The flag should be a square with a tail.
  3. Draw the flag on a piece of paper. The flag should be a square with a tail.
  4. Draw the flag on a piece of paper. The flag should be a square with a tail.
  5. Draw the flag on a piece of paper. The flag should be a square with a tail.
- The Beaufort flag system is a way of describing the direction and speed of the wind. It is a way of describing the direction and speed of the wind.

Why not draw your own flag? Try to make your own Beaufort flag.

For more information on the Beaufort flag system, visit the website:
<http://www.met.rdg.ac.uk/~met/Beaufort/>